New Mexico teenager captures coveted 'Miley' golf trophy

PRESTWICK — The coveted Marion Miley Trophy has been won by Miss Nancy Lopez of Roswell, N.M., after the opening round of play at the 46th Annual Junior Invitation Open Championship.

The trophy is awarded to the junior player who has the low gross total in the qualifying rounds of the Amateur and Junior Championships. Nancy had an 85 at the Amateur competition held recently in Kansas City and she carded a 76 Monday at Prestwick for a total of 161.

Four of the six Canadian girls who travelled to Frankfort for the junior open made Tuesday's championship flight however, all four were eliminated by their U.S. partners Tuesday.

Play was generally better Tuesday during the second day of play at the Junior Invitation and two girls scored two-under par eagles. Susie Shinn of Waterloo scored a three on the 429-yard No. 6 par five hole. Brenda Goldsmith of San Antonio had an eagle on No. 11 hole which is a par five, 475 yards.

Bentley property back in court

NEW LENOX — The Caroline Bentley Estate is still making news. Miss Bentley, a resident of New Lenox died in November, 1971, leaving the bulk of her estate to the grade and high school systems here.

The New Lenox Grade School District 122 and Lincoln-Way High School District 210 took exception to the prices at which the executors of the estate sold, or contracted to sell, the land. As a result the schools filed suit, which was settled out of court last June after the case had been called to trial.

The buyers of the property left the high school and those that had purchased land bequeathed to the grade schools, upped their prices over those originally paid and the suit was dropped.

Before that, however, the purchasers of 160 acres of land along Laraway road, half a mile east of Cedar Road, that had been left to the grade school, cancelled it out and the land went back to the executors. These buyers had agreed to pay their appraiser's price of $875, which the grade school said was much too low.

The schools hired an appraiser of their own at the time and he put the price at $1,000, which also has proved to be too low.

Last week this 160 acre tract was sold at public auction for $1,666 an acre to a Chicago realty firm. After payment of commission the grade schools will still net more than $1,500 an acre, or several classrooms more, as Superintendent Arnold J. Tyler might put it, than the $875 price paid at the beginning.

The high school's bequest was different than the grade school's. The grade school can use the money it gets out of the estate to build a school or otherwise improve its system. The land left to the high school was to be sold and the money placed in a scholarship fund, to be known as the Caroline Bentley Scholarship Fund. It is to be administered by members of the high school board — not as board members but as individuals.

It so happened that the Lincoln-Way site committee, appointed to select a thir prospective site for a new school, corner of Cedar and Laraway Roads, according to Superintendent Joe Kruzich. This acreage was in the parcel to be sold to raise money for the scholarship fund.

So now Attorney Robert Baron, of the law firm of Thomas, Wallace, Feehan & Baron, has filed a condemnation suit in the Will County Circuit Court, in behalf of the Lincoln-Way High School District.

Because title to all school lands in Will County is vested in the Will County Board of School Trustees, the suit was brought through that body, against all the heirs of the Caroline Bentley estate — a purely technical proceedings — and the purchasers or those who have contracted to purchase the land involved.

The high school board stands ready to pay the cost of the 50-acre site. If the school were to pay the money this week, Attorney Baron explained, it would go to the executors for placement in the Caroline Bentley Scholarship Fund, because the group that contracted to purchase the land from the executors haven't paid any money on it yet.

If the court condemns the land, and it was pointed out a school board has the right to condemn to gain a school site, it will set a price. If in the meantime the purchasers of the land from the executors make their contract good and pay in the cash, the money from the school district would pass to them.

The land in this particular site had been appraised at $1,750 when the executors agreed to sell it but when the suit over the property was settled in court last June, the buyers agreed to up the price $250, bringing the price per acre up to $2,000.

First day will be short

NEW LENOX — Wednesday, Aug. 30, the first day of school for those grade schools in the Lincoln-Way High School district will be a short session, with regular classes starting the following day.

The regular schedule for the New Lenox schools vary, according to schools. The schedule follows: Oakview Junior High—8:34 a.m. to 3:38 p.m. Haines School—8:30 a.m. to 3:05 p.m.

Haven School—8:25 a.m. to 3 p.m. Cherry Hill School—8:20 a.m. to 2:50 p.m. Schmuhl School, 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. St. Jude—8:30 a.m. to 2:50 p.m.

Parents of kindergarten pupils assigned to the Marley and Reiter Schools have received letters indicating their assignments or the orientation conference and all other information needed.

Festival days near

FRANKFORT — Frankfort Chamber of Commerce members and the other organizations involved have another week of preparations left before they get the annual Fall Festival show on the road. Everyone connected with the affair have their fingers crossed pulling for good weather.

Last year a heavy rain interrupted but the crowds waited it out and they had come to have fun and enjoy themselves.

The festival runs Sept. 2-4, with the parade coming on Sunday, Sept. 3.

The parade is in the afternoon, starting at 1:30. Sunday morning there is to be a church service in the Frankfort School gymnasium in which all the churches of the Frankfort area will participate. The choir, made up of voices from all faiths.

Although the festival does not begin until Saturday, Friday has been designated as a workday for all committees and their helpers to get things set up. And one of the things that will be operating then, for the benefit of the workers, will be the beer garden.

The program for Saturday includes a teen dance that night on Ash Street, near the bowling lanes, and on Sunday night the adults will have their turn at dancing, according to Alber Behnke, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Bob Dean, head of the Frankfort branch of Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Company, general chairman, reported that the festival will be widely publicized, via press and radio. The newly formed Frankfort Historical Society is preparing brochures giving a history of the community and bringing out interesting bits of the past.

For those who would add a view of the village to the historical facts there will be a horse drawn carriage that will take them on a tour of the town for 10 cents.

The Frankfort State Bank is sponsoring this ride-about-town.

Many artists will be showing their work along Kansas Street.

Antiques and a "flea market" will be conducted on the new village parking lot on Hickory Street.

On Saturday beginning at 4 p.m., the Frankfort Lions will serve their annual wiener and sauerkraut dinner at the Veterans Memorial Building, Locust and Nebraska streets.

Travellers' aid

Such a sign as this, which was displayed near the intersection of Kansas and Oak Streets at the Frankfort Fall Festival last year, must have had a great uplifting influence on early day travelers, who after weary days or weeks on the trail, knew civilization was close at hand. The Fall Festival this year will be held Sept. 2, 3 and 4. Everyone is welcome.

Dist. 146 tells fee plans

TINLEY PARK — Community Consolidated School District 146 launches the 1972-73 school year with an in-service workshop for all certified personnel. Dr. Robert W. Procnier, superintendent, will conduct the first meeting with the staff on Monday, Aug. 28. The in-service workshop is scheduled for Aug. 28 and 29. Wednesday, Aug. 30, a complete school day is scheduled.

Kindergarten sections and the first grade will also attend regular daily schedule — this is a new procedure for those children. The daily kindergarten schedule is 9 - 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 - 3 p.m.

Grades one through six meet from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and the junior high school classes begin at 8:45 and conclude at 3 p.m. daily.

A new procedure for the payment of fees will be incorporated. On opening day, Aug. 30, each student will receive a printed envelope with the fees listed. The envelope will be taken home and the parents are to enclose a check made payable to District No. 146. The next day the student returns the envelope to his homeroom and a receipt will be issued.

Book rental fee for grades one through eight is $10. Kindergarten fee, including milk, is $20 yearly. Towel fee at Central is $2.25 per student.

Pupil accident insurance is a service item which is provided by the district; therefore the fees are optional. The rate for the school plan is $3 while the comprehensive plan (twenty-four hour, twelve month coverage) requires a payment of $15.

Students who are enrolling in District 146 for the first time may register at their school any time prior to Aug. 30. These students must present a physical examination; all kindergarten (or first grade) and fifth grade students must have current physicals while all others may present the one from their previous school.

Classrooms ready

OAK FOREST — School reopens in District 142 Aug. 25th with an Orientation Day for teachers new to the District. Monday, Aug. 28th, the full staff reports for Institute Day with luncheon served by the District PTA. Guest speakers will include David Robert, from Chicago Consortium of Colleges and Universities speaking on "Looking Ahead in Education", Dr. Charles Thomas, assistant superintendent of the Chicago Regional Office, speaking on "Goals and Priorities for Illinois Education", and Dr. William Peters, acting director of the educational center of St. Xavier College, and other members of the St. Xavier staff, speaking on "Working the Group". School begins with registration for pupils on Tuesday, Aug. 29th; classes will meet about one hour in each building. Ridge, Foster, and Hille

Schools will accommodate all of the kindergarten through fifth grade students. Classes at Ridge, Foster, and Hille will begin at 8:55 a.m. and dismiss about 10 a.m.

Kindergarten follows a special schedule and parents will be contacted by letter previous to the opening of school, informing them which school and room pupils have been assigned and about bus service, if available in their area. Laramie serving grades six through eight, will begin promptly at 8:40 a.m. and dismiss about 9:40 a.m.

Book fees are payable at any of the school offices between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. from Aug. 21st through Sept. 1st. Book rentals for kindergarten through fifth grade are $10 - grades six through eight book rental fee is $12.50. School insurance for accident to children during school hours can be purchased by parents, the cost is $2.50 for all pupils kindergarten through eighth grades.

Cost of milk for the year will be $6. Order blanks for all special needs are available in the school offices.

Kindergarten and fifth grade pupils will need a physical on file as required by law. Transfer students whose medical records are incomplete must also have a current physical. Upper level students who participate in competitive athletics are also required to have a current medical dated within the last six months plus insurance coverage.

Pupils in grades six through eight are required to have gym suits to share in the physical education program — suits may be purchased at school.

Further information on any questions or problems will be answered at any of the school offices.

McGovern office opens

JOLIET — Friday evening, Aug. 18, more than 100 persons gathered at 210 East Cass St. in Joliet for the grand opening of the McGovern-Shriver Campaign Headquarters in Will County.

Among the county democratic party officials attending the opening were John J. Houlihan of Park Forest, chairman of the Will County Democratic Party and candidate for the United States Congress; LeRoy Van Dyne, candidate for State Senator; and Franklin Burkey, candidate for States Attorney of Will County.

The McGovern campaign in Will County is being coordinated by a Steering Committee, the "Will County Citizens for McGovern". The committee consists mainly of delegates and alternate delegates committed to McGovern in the primary election.

John Ormins, vice-chairman of the group, said, "It was very natural to keep going after the primary; we are engaged in a war for peace, human dignity and credibility in government and the primary was just one battle. Nixon's 'Waterloo' will come on Nov. 7. Ormins is with the Department of Public Aid and is a graduate student at Roosevelt University in Chicago in Public Administration.

Barbara Ormins is the Neighborhood Center Coordinator for the committee. She announced that the committee would like to open 11 or more neighborhood centers where interested persons can obtain literature and information about the candidates for all county, state and federal offices and where they may volunteer to work for their candidates.

Mrs. Ormins indicated that two offices were already open stating that they were located as follows; Mrs. Walter Kaplinski, 213 Hayes, Romeoville, phone 815-838-9350, and John Scott of Renwick Road in Plainfield, phone 815-436-6405. Other offices planned are two in Bolingbrook, two in Frankfort, one more in Romeoville, one in Dwight and three in Joliet.

Mary Maloney, office manager, announced that the headquarters would be open initially after 5 p.m. and later possibly 12 hours per day. Their Joliet phone number is 815-727-6158.

Miss Maloney was chairman of the "Let Us Vote" campaign for this area which ended successfully in the 18-year-olds receiving the vote in all elections. Maloney indicated that many more volunteer workers are needed in the campaign and that anyone interested in joining the campaign to elect McGovern may call her.

The co-chairman for finance of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scribner. They announced that they have received nearly $1,000.00 in campaign contributions to date. They noted that the goal of the Will County group is $10,000.00.

Scribner indicated that no financial assistance has or will be forthcoming from the county democratic organization so it would be necessary for the McGovern forces to raise the full $10,000.00 needed from additional sources such as dances, car washes, dinners, baby sitting services, garage sales and soliciting for donations for cash and resaleable merchandise.

Scribner noted that it was now possible to deduct from one's income tax the sum of $25.00 or less contributed to the political party of one's choice. He hoped that many persons would contribute this sum to the McGovern Campaign to over come the effect of the political "fat cats" who have traditionally controlled local, state and federal office holders.

Dick Williams, a sociologist for the Department of Corrections and a law student, is treasurer of the group. Williams is a Vietnam veteran. Chet Kulis is chairman of the Steering Committee. Kulis could not be present for the grand opening due to other commitments.

Cliff Sinclair is coordinator of the registration effort of the McGovern forces. Sinclair is working closely with the regular party officials to register as many voters as possible between now and election day.

Other key persons working with the steering committee are Dick Odell of New Lenox, Pat McGuire and Shari Kaplinski of Romeoville and Mike McKeon, Bill Felan, Pat Nichols and Greg Andrews of Joliet.

Editor:
I would like to thank you for publishing the names of the new teachers in School District 135. It was through this article that I was notified that I had not recieved a teaching position with this particular school district.

Other school districts have at least had the courtesy to notify me either way of their decision. Apparently Orland Park does not. I am curious to know how many other applicants have been informed through your newspaper instead of the proper source. What are the secretaries in the Administration Center doing?

On second thought

Frankfort says it's fall

By Glenn Logan

There may be some terrifically hot days yet — it is not uncommon to have temperatures in high 90's or over 100 mark in early September — but, believe it or not, summer is practically over.

Some may rise to a point of order to put the question — what summer? Oh, we had a few cool days this month and more rain than usually falls in August. And maybe we had a cool day or so in July. As for June one can always expect cool weather in June, and a lot of rain.

Taking it by and large we have had a very comfortable summer. There were quite a few days when the mercury climbed up in the 90's and a whole lot of days when it was in the 80's, to balance out the crummy ones.

It was cold, that br-r-r-shiver-chill-shiver kind of cold when we moved into our present office and some of that weather must have decided to stay on.

At least this office has been cool while all about us people were perspiring, melting and swearing because of the heat. We have air conditioning but the only times we have turned it on was to get rid of some of the dampness brought on by the many rains that has been our portion.

We try to be careful, however, and on hot days we dutifully grumble, mop our brows and otherwise conform to the attitude taken by the heat sufferers. There isn't anything that so incenses someone suffering from the heat than to encounter a person who hasn't noticed it or who says that he has been cool and comfortable.

Anyway, there isn't much left of summer. Schools open next week. And the week after comes Labor Day. That's the end of summer, no matter what the almanacs say.

Officially fall does not begin until around Sept. 21 - 22, the Autumnal Equinox, but everyone knows that summer ends with Labor Day and that fall is here.

At Frankfort the annual Fall Festival will be celebrated and the last day on that program is Labor Day. They don't call it the late summer festival, or the early September festival; they definitely call it the Fall Festival, so that is another proof that summer is fast fading from the scene.

If you are one who plans to join in the fun and games of Labor day as a way of saying farewell to a short summer, just keep in mind that a new season is about to begin. Autumn is one of the most beautiful times of the year, so try to stick around and enjoy it.

Symptoms of drug user

(The following is the last of a 13 part series on drug abuse offered by Tinley Park Cares.)

Parents have long told their children not to use drugs, except under a doctor's prescription, but now readers can authoritatively say why drugs should not be abused and the many harms that can come to those who do abuse drugs.

Most of the series have been on the prevention through knowledge approach to the drug problem. The following are the ten frequent signs of drug abuse:

Moral ill health. Normal value

Impressive arrival

FRANKFORT — Late arrivals at the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting last Wednesday night at the Wagon Wheel noted a helicopter coming in for a landing.

"Probably our president," one of the members remarked facetiously. And sure enough, when the blades stopped whirling, one of the two passengers that stepped off was Herman Fabiani, of Brummer's, the head of the chamber, his companion was Mayor Glenn Warning.

The pair had been taking an aerial view of Frankfort, courtesy of Paul Lambrecht, of Brown & Lambrecht Co. The earth moving and construction outfit uses helicopters for keeping in touch with far flung jobs.

changes and unusual ideas taking their place.

Mental ill health. Emotional extremes with a marked loss of interest in usual goals. Unusually bad grades in school, signs of a change in personality.

Physical ill health. Loss of weight, changes in skin color, loss of body tone, unnatural careless stance and posture.

Development of a fear complex. Usually convinced that someone is "after them." Suspicious about everyone around them, even family members.

Marked appetite extremes. No appetite at all and when this changes and they do eat, the amounts of food intake are huge, particularly in the line of sweets and liquids.

Extremes in emotions. Frequent spells of crying or hysterical laughter. Very frequently showing feelings against any authority.

Needle marks, skin boils, sores. Scars from use of needles many times become very infected.

Body and breath odor very unpleasant.

Eyes usually very blood shot and watery. Pupils very small, eyes often wide.

If you suspect a child is taking some form of drugs it is probably best, for the first step, to consult your family doctor. He is very well qualified to confirm your judgement.

The following are some of the street

terms connected with drug use:

Mainline — using drugs by means of intravenous injection.

OD — overdose usually deadly.

Outfit — equipment for giving injections.

Peace pill — a tranquilizer most usually given by veterinarians, sometimes called a "Hog."

Pusher — a seller of drugs.

Spaced — inability to concentrate, mentally adrift.

Stoned — high on drugs.

Trip — high on hallucinogens.

Turned on — to be given drugs, to be happy or high.

Turned off — to quit the use of drugs entirely.

Bag — a user's favorite drug.

Big C — Cocaine

Blasted — under the influence of some drug.

Busted — arrested.

Burned — cheated on a drug purchase.

Cap — a capsule containing a drug.

Cold Turkey — an abrupt stop in use of drugs in an effort to quit.

Fix — an injection of drugs.

Give Wings — Give first injection of heroin to a friend.

High — under the influence of some drug.

Hit — one puff on marijuana cigarette.

Hooked — dependent on drugs.

Turned on — to start a friend on drugs.

Junkie — a heroin addict sometimes called "Hyge!"

Women's rights? Not all agree

(Editor's Note: Ms. Mary Poglajen is a resident of Romeoville and a housewife wishing to use the HERALD'S new opinion column to express her views. Readers are asked to submit articles on subjects of their selection to be published in the column weekly. We ask only that the writer contact this office prior to submitting material in order that it can be scheduled for publication.)

By Mary Poglajen

As a married woman, mother of four children, I am tired of being treated as a second class citizen. It is not the men of this world that are discriminating against me but the Women's Liberation Movement.

Men have always treated me with respect. My opinions have always been welcome in any conversation, the same as any man's. I have even been singled out to have my presence recognized by having doors opened for me and men stand when I enter a room.

But as a housewife and mother I am treated, by women's lib people as a person of no intelligence or talent. They seem to think that the only reason a person keeps house is that they are unsuitable for any thing else.

As far as housework goes, sure it has its boring aspects, but so has any other job. Brick layers get tired of the same old bricks, retailers get tired of the same merchandise on their shelves. Even the most glamorous jobs, such as astronauts and movie stars, have boring routine before the conquest.

The satisfaction of any career comes from the pride you take in a job well done. Anyone can do a job half-heartedly and find it a chore. What does a good career consist of?

Challenge? — What could be more challenging than a family made up of different personalities and your job is to have them live under one roof in harmony? Is there anything more challenging than molding helpless human beings into good citizens?

Responsibilities? — What could be a greater responsibility than knowing that the lives of not only your husband and children's welfare is in your hands but how these future leaders of the world relate to other people?

Something interesting to work with? — Newspapers and magazines are constantly writing of the amusing things children do all you have to do is stop feeling abused and spend some time listening to their conversations.

A job that keeps you on the move? — If you sat down and decided all the things that you would like done to make your house the way you can be proud of it, then set a schedule you could find plenty to keep you on your feet getting lots of manual labor.

Be your own boss? — In what other job could you pick your own hours, take a break when you like, or just not do much of any thing because there is a book you want to read?

Fringe benefits? — You get your hospital paid on your husband's policy. You share in his retirement. But you also get things no company ever gives and that is companionship from your husband and children in your old age. For you see you are loved member of the family not a stranger they see on occasions.

Self Satisfaction? — In this as any other job that all depends on how much effort you put into the work. The joy you get in a job well done depends on the effort put into that job. There is no executive in the world that worries over his account books more than I over the welfare of my family.

The whole world depends on the citizens of the future and let's face it, bringing them up is the most important job to our future.

Each person in this world has their job to do. Mine happens to be raising a family. I do not consider it the dirty work. If some thing happened to my husband that kept him from bringing in the pay check I would have to go back to work. Then he would have the job of keeping the house and raising the children and I certainly would not consider his job taking less intelligence or challenge than anything in the business world. But that would be a tragic occurrence because in spite of the women's lib propaganda I don't want to be "freed" from my stimulating career.

Finigan Ford PP & K base

TINLEY PARK — Finigan Ford Company, 17048 Oak Park Ave., will begin registering boys and girls August 14 for Punt, Pass and Kick.

Nationally, more than 1,000,000 youngsters are expected to enroll in the huge youth program this year, the fifth consecutive year the number of participants has topped that level.

Aged eight to 13, they will make their opening bids for the Football Hall of Fame in less than two months. Six will make it — having their names inscribed at Canton, Ohio, as national PP&K winners.

The program is sponsored by participating U.S. Ford dealers and the National Football League (NFL).

Registration closes September 29. Registrants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian when signing up.

PP&K participants punt, pass and kick against others their own age. Any youngster aged eight through 13 is eligible. There is no entry fee and no special equipment is needed. There is no body contact during PP&K competition and participants do not lose amateur status.

Scoring is based on distance and accuracy. One point is given for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance and a point is deducted for every foot off a line.

Six levels of competition produce six winners. Trophies are awarded to winners at all levels. Competition will begin September 30 with dealer-level contests.

Starting at the fourth (area) level, competition is held before the kickoff and during the halftime of NFL games.

On to Akron

OAK FOREST — Bill Duddleston, of Chicago will be the second member of his family to carry hopes of the area into the annual International Soapbox Derby this weekend in Akron, Ohio.

Bill's brother Jim won the local derby in 1971 and won the coveted trip to Akron for the International event.

This year Bill kept the title in the family and along with it won a $500 saving bond. The local derby was sponsored by the Oak Forest Jaycees and Jack O'Donnell Chevrolet.

Gals play for dystrophy

FIELDCREST — The champions and the second place team of the Fieldwood Girl's softball league, and the fourth and tenth place teams of the Sugar League, met Sunday at Fieldcrest Park to do battle for the benefit of the Muscular Dystrophy Fund. Judy Dehnert, Manager of the Blackjacks, fostered the benefit doubleheader and Connie & Don Huizenga volunteered their Slugger team, as did Judy Cipolla with the RSVP's and Bev Watson with her Chicks. All the team members sold the tickets to the tune of $125,000 dollars which was given over to the MS fund.

The games themselves were a surprise as both underdog teams beat their rivals. The Sluggers and Blackjacks who ended the season with two wins and two defeats against each other played a tight ballgame with the Sluggers coming out on top, 9-5.

The Sluggers in bad need of a pitcher, all of theirs being on vacation, borrowed Debbie Bretz from the Blackjacks, and she pitched a great game for them. The Sluggers jumped off to a 2-1 lead at the end of the first, in the fourth the Sluggers pushed across three more to lead 5-1.

The Blackjacks came back with two in the fifth to make it 5-3, the Sluggers added one in the sixth to pull out 6-3, and scored three more in the top of the seventh, with the Blackjacks rally in the bottom of the seventh held to two runs, for the final of 9-5.

The Sluggers were good defensively as Debbie Bretz, Dianne Biscan, Mureen Foley and Desiree Cipolla turned in good plays. They found their hitting shoes with Donna Neakarse, Desiree Cipolla, Dianne Biscan, Luann Rupsis, Sue Peterson, Donna Rispoli (4 for 4), Sherrie Smith and Jackie Kubin all hitting safely.

The Blackjacks Laura Keleman, Lori Dehnert, Debbie Biscan, Patty Dehnert, Madonna Cipolla, Peggy Eby, Lynn Benninger, Jackie Keleman and Joan Trausch, all hit safely. Debbie Biscan and Patty Dehnert turned in fielding gems.

The Chicks, who did not beat the RSVP's in league competition, really laid it on the RSVP's to the tune of 33-7. The Chicks behind Sue McGann's pitching, Cathy Conrad's hitting and a superb defense, started off with a seven run first inning and were never headed. Both games were enjoyed by parents and friends of the girls who did not get a chance to see regular season games.

The Carl Sandburg football gridders got their physicals and equipment Saturday in preparation for the on coming season. The gridders first practice will be held Wednesday August 23. Head Coach Cliff Eade, taking over for Joe Devine, will be out to rebound from last years' team record of 5-3. Cliff Eade, former sophomore head coach, has a excellent record to back him up compiling a 29-9-2 record and winning three championships.

ORLAND PARK — The Orland Ladies softball team last week played three games all of which they won. Last Tuesday and Wednesday they defeated Arbury Hills shutting them out in each game.

Orland the next day wiped out Lincoln States by a score of 11-2 lifting their record to 4-5 for the season.

Mary Avolio, a member of the Orland team, said she is going to organize a league next year and call it the South-west Suburban Ladies Softball League.

Losers capture 1972 Tinley softball title

TINLEY PARK — The Losers are the champions of the Tinley Park Softball League. Coming from behind in two of the contests, the Teehan's Liquors entry downed the Brotherhood of Casey & Wood Sports in three straight games. Runners-up in the championship playoffs were the Landlovers of Ray Feldner Real Estate and the Nickelbag Revised, sponsored by Bremen Bank and Trust.

In the first game the finals, the Brotherhood jumped off to an early 12-2 advantage, but they could not hold their opponents. The Losers kept peking away until they overtook the Brotherhood for a 17-15 win.

The second game of the series saw the Brotherhood play enough defense, but their bats went cold. Getting only five hits, the Brotherhood ran into a Losers group that played even better defense. Getting their hits when they counted, the Losers came out on top, 10-3.

The third, and last game of the set was a thriller all the way. Scoring first, the Brotherhood kept ahead of the Losers by a run or two until the seventh inning. Going into the bottom of the seventh trailing 7-6, The Losers had their work cut out. They loaded the bases and then delivered a winning single which drove across two runs for an 8-7 victory to win the championship in three straight games.

Kunzer, Melon pick Nevada

TINLEY PARK — Quarterback Tom Kunzer and end Mike Meloy who formed a powerful passing force on the 1972 Titan football team have won full scholarships to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

The two former Titans began workouts with the Nevada team last weekend. Both players were All-Southeast Conference selections last season as they helped Tinley Park to a second place conference finish.

Kunzer was a talented runner rolling up 465, and passing for 351 yards. He scored 12 touchdowns, and 76 points.

Meloy who played both offense and defense was named to the conference all defensive team. On offense he snared 13 passes for 159 yards.

annual awards banquet. It is scheduled for Friday, September 15, in the Georgian Room of St. George Catholic Church. The evening will get underway with a cocktail hour beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Cubs splash through races

GINGERWOOD — Cub Pack 329 held a family splash party at the Gingerwood pool recently. Besides swimming and playing in the water many other water events were held. There were races for all age groups and in the 8-9 year old boys races, first place went to Brian Berg and second place to Timmy Austin. In the 10-11 year old boys group Mike Curry captured the blue ribbon and Jim Posthumus got the red second place.

In the 10-12 year old girls races Sue Wallace came in first and Gail Gorman took second. In the under eight class, boys and girls combined, first place went to Sue Gonzales and Kevin Evancho taking second.

Next was a contest for the biggest splash off the diving board with Robert Frey taking first with a tidal wave. Not far behind was Len and Jack Kubacki winning second and third respectively.

Relay races topped off the evenings events and in the 8-9 year old class Doug Stratten and Rodney Humpal came in first with Larry Evancho and Bob Curry getting the second place ribbon. In the 10-12 year olds the blue ribbons went to Mike Curry and Ken Kubacki. Second place went to Sue Wallace and Gail Gorman who finished just a couple of feet behind the boys. Everyone had wonderful time. The splash party was attended by approximately 45 youths and 25 adults.

Golf tourney set

Sunday, Aug. 27th, the Gingerwood Athletic Association is sponsoring a golf outing at Cog Hill Golf Course. The golf outing is open to all men and women in Oak Forest. The Peoria System will be used in scoring so that anyone will have a chance to win one of the numerous prizes to be awarded, even if you've never played before. First tee off is at 10 a.m. If you'd like to play call Don Cassidy at 532-5930. There are only a limited number of tickets left.

Sports jamboree set

ORLAND PARK — Cross country, frosh football, soph football, varsity football and a "parking lot" dance are all part of the Fall Sports Jamboree scheduled for Carl Sandburg High School.

William Nelson, president of the sponsoring Sandburg Boosters has announced the event for Saturday evening, Sept. 9, at the high school's athletic field.

Introduction of the cross country team members will begin at 6:30, followed by an intra-squad competition. The freshmen, sophomore and varsity members of the football squads will be introduced during the cross country meet.

The varsity players will present a brief intra-squad encounter. The evening's entertainment will be closed out with a dance in the Sandburg parking lot.

The entire evening will cost $1.00 donation to the Boosters' treasury. The Boosters will have on display and for sale the club's official dark blue nylon Booster jacket.

Church youths visit Redbird Mission

TINLEY PARK — At midnight, on July 14, nineteen senior high students from the Tinley United Methodist Church headed for Beverly Methodist Church in five cars to work at the Red Bird Mission.

Youth Minister and Assistant Pastor, Dennis D. Johnson chaperoned the students along with assistant chaperones Mrs. Gene Kelly, of Tinley Park, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Doverspike, Tinley, and Mrs. Alberta Doverspike of Winneconne, Wis.

The students and chaperones spent a week at the mission as part of a work camp to help rebuild the building. Most of the work was physical labor, including sanding, scraping, digging, and staining.

Cost of the trip was $500-$600 which was raised by the youth group. According to Dennis, application to work at the mission was made a year in advance of the trip. Those students chosen were picked by their work record and their effort in the money raising project. Everything was arranged on a first come, first served basis, and out of the 19 students, only one person was left behind.

Those who went on the trip were: Geoff and Greg Ames, Randy Andres, Dawn Ayers, Ron Bartlett, Joann Boenzi, Greg Dryer, Leone Graf, Dennis Johnson, Sandy Kelly, Rick Kush, David Law, Sue Manning, John McHenry, Carol Moyer, Chester Nizienty, Cherly Rodgers, Mike Wiabel, and Carole Wilkerson.

Dawn Ayers felt "The trip was a real success. It was a good experience and as a whole, a lot was accomplished." She added "We picked beans in a garden near the hospital. I helped dig drainage ditches, and stained pieces of wood. Dennis (youth minister) was really great and understanding. I'm proud to have him as director."

Sue Manning thought it was, "The greatest thing that happened so far this summer." "At night we visited the towns. The work wasn't bad. Some kids worked in the ditches, digging for a septic tank," she said.

As a whole, everything went as planned and a good time was had by all, as well as a great deal of work accomplished, according to Johnson.

Peotone to host fair

PEOTONE — The 69th annual Will County Fair, staged at Peotone, opens its gates tomorrow, Aug. 24 for four day run. The fair closes Sunday, Aug. 27.

Theme of this year's fair is "Come Smile With Us." There will be many contests, demonstrations and displays.

The exhibits, of course, have always held the most interest for fairgoers and they are still the main attraction. This year the prize money is a record $41,537.50, it was reported by Milbert Johnson, head of the fair board. There also will be trophies and ribbons for distribution among the winners.

There will be a tractor pull tomorrow (Aug. 24) in front of the grandstand. There are to be three events, starting at 12:30 p.m. and five events beginning at 7 p.m.

And for those who like action there will be a greased pig contest at 6 p.m. that can be viewed from the grandstand. There are to be six contests, three for girls of three age groups, 10-12, 13-15 and 15-6, and three for boys in the same age groupings.

To win one must catch a greased pig and pen it. Each winner will get $10.

There will be a demolition derby Friday — two in fact — one for women drivers and one for men. There also is to be an auto thrill show Saturday.

Winners in the livestock show will be paraded on Sunday at 7 p.m. to be followed by a rodeo at 7:30 p.m. A fine arts exhibit will also be a part of the fair.

It was too costly

TINLEY PARK — It was erroneously stated in last week's HERALD that the cost of the school fire alarm system for Tinley Heights school was $12,300. The actual cost for Tinley Heights is $1,500. Total cost for all life safety for District 140 schools is $12,300.

Business Life

ORLAND PARK — B. Harold Brog, FIC, 9449 W. 143 St., general agent in this area for Aid Association for Lutheran, attended a management conference Aug. 4-7 at the Pioneer Inn, Oshkosh, Wisc. The meeting included discussions on management procedures, service to members and AAL goals and objectives.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER BY JIM HIRSCH

When a traditional holiday is calendared over a week end, we witness a strange sort of piggy back tradition take place. The piggy back tradition that rides in and out with the week end is a national disgrace. It dooms many families to heartbreak and sorrow. The disgrace is all the more shameful because all of us are familiar with the triad law of the cause, means and effect of the disgraceful tradition. Most shameful of all, it is an explainable disgrace that has an irrational, unexplainable acceptance.

Too many of us seem to think this disgrace "can't happen to me." It is always the other family, the other fellow that causes it or is affected by it; it can't be me or my family. This attitude is also unexplainable. It CAN happen to you. You CAN be the cause. You CAN be the means. You, instead of the other fellow, CAN suffer from the effect. We as individuals must face these facts if we are ever going to stop the holiday week end blood baths amid twisted steel on our highways.

For your own sake, for the sake of your family, face these facts in the holiday week end coming up soon... please... please... please!

By Jean Wille
Television music is deceptive. If a "listener" is not a "watcher," he can easily be deceived — by the music — as to the type of program being shown for viewing.

The other evening I heard music and at the moment could not see the TV screen. I was positive that the program was a World War I navy sage. When I decided to check out my supposition I was amazed to see Prince Valiant chucking a rock at some knight's head. (The music I had heard was definitely battleship rock and roll).

In order to aid future television producers in selecting the proper music to coincide with programs, I have prepared a list of programs and musical pieces to coordinate television programs and sound. If this list is employed, it will not be necessary for listeners to view the picture in order to determine the program. "Bonanza" —

"Bonanza" — "Daddy, You've Been a Mother to Me."
"FBI" — "Cheerful Little Earful" or, "I Know That You Know"
"Mission: Impossible" — "Dancing In The Dark"
"Lawrence Welk" — "And So To Sleep, Again"
"The Bold Ones" — "I Apologize"
"The Rookies" — "I Didn't Know The Gun Was Loaded"
"Judd For The Defense" — "Hold Me"
"Let's Make A Deal" — "It All Depends On You"
"One Life To Live" — "Day By Day"
"My Favorite Martin" — "Fly Me To The Moon"
"Love, American Style" — "Until The Real Thing Comes Along"
"Lost In Space" — "Baby, Won't You Please Come Home"
"Flying Nun" — "She's Funny That Way"
"The Rifleman" — "I Surrender, Dear"
"Odd Couple" — "Give Me a Little Kiss, Will Ya, Huh?"
"Search For Tomorrow" — "Careless Hands"

"Bye-bye, birdman"

"All My Children" — "Accidentally on Purpose"
"As The World Turns" — "Who Cares?"
"Republican Convention" — "Anything Goes"
"Marcus Welby, M.D." — "All of Me, Why Not Take All of Me"
"Love Is a Many Splendered Thing" — "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver"
"Medical Center" — "I Have But One Heart"
"Days of Our Lives" — "Varsity Drag"
"Newlywed Game" — "Two Sleepy People"
"Guiding Light" — "Stumbling"
"The Doctors" — "I've Got You Under My Skin"

"Dating Game" — "When I'm Not Near The One I Love"
"Star Trek" — "Riders in The Sky"
"Here Come the Brides" — "Boo Hoo"
For the next late, late showing of "I Was a Teenage Werewolf," I would like to suggest, "Full Moon and Empty Arms."

The Jolly giant may be in pain

Many people seemed suprised when recent studies indicated the companies tended to favor taller college graduates, no matter what their grades, over more academically qualified shorter graduates. The taller men got more job offers and at higher salaries than their shorter classmates.

Stop and think for a momemt about "height" in our society. Remember being told to drink more milk "so you can grow big and Strong?"

Miss America contestants usually want the man of their dreams "to be tall."

United States senators and movie stars wear elevator shoes and try to avoid being photographed in such a way that the public will realize that their heroes are a lot closer to 5 feet 7 inches than the magical six foot mark.

You'd have automatically made a lot of money if you had bet on the tallest candidate in each of the presidential races over the years. Yet scientists are beginning to wonder if being so tall is good for our health. Extra height means miles and miles of additional blood vessels, almost like being overweight, and this puts a strain on the body's cardio-vascular system.

Astrological engagement

SAGITTA SAYS, if your engagement extends through earthy Virgo, August 24 to September 23, you'll feel Mercurial infiltrations and a note of practicality in your plans. Sounds conflicting, but Virgo's influences do tend to bring splendid activity of mind and body at the same time it brings frugality and cautiousness.

If you feel inclined to view your coming wedding somewhat seriously and even more somberly than before, you can put it down to the sign of the Virgin. Use it for what it's worth while making your momentous plans, but remember that analysis of situations must give way to sheer joy from time to time.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klare, Aberdeen Road, are the club champions in the husband and wife category for 18 holes with a gross score (no handicap deducted) of 163. Congratulations to the winning pair. I wonder when they work!

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Kal of Hazel Crest won the husband and wife championship for 18 holes with a net score of 143.

Mr. and Mrs. William Champion, Palos Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prieb, Westover, tied for club champion in the husband and wife 9 hole division. A playoff will be necessary after the WWGA tournament ends.

Our sincerest condolences to Mrs. James B. Smith, Heritage Court, on the passing of her husband last Saturday, Aug. 19.

The net winners for 9 holes in the husband and wife championship were Mr. and Mrs. James Mangan, Oak Lawn.

Our personal observations during the WWGA play tells us that the majority of the young male caddies of Prestwick are having a difficult time keeping their eyes on the ball. I wonder what they are looking at???

Who could have been the driver who hit two trees along Prestwick Drive and broke them off at the ground and then hit the stop sign at Harlem Avenue?

Richard Zavko, Dover Court off Aberdeen Road, is the new delivery boy for the HERALD. Anyone interested in subscribing to the paper should contact him. I hope that Richard will call me since his phone is unlisted.

Many nice compliments are being paid to our fine community by the women of the WWGA. The word reaching us is that the course is being referred to as the most beautiful they have ever played on, or seen and the host homes are really making a hit with the girls staying in them. A few of the hosts are making great hits too. Thanks!

Frankfort receives model equipment

FRANKFORT — At a ground breaking Thursday, Aug. 10, an oversized shovel was used to officially commemorate the start of construction on a building which will house a new model of electronic switching equipment that will begin serving Frankfort telephone customers in late 1972.

The 68 by 73-foot, one-story building will be located one block north of U.S. 30 on 84th Ave.

"The new office will cutover with 2,400 main stations (or customers) and have an ultimate capacity of 19,000," said Bill Cremer, Illinois Bell manager.

Called No. 2 Electronic Switching System (ESS), the computer-like telephone equipment is "the most revolutionary advance in telephone switching since the introduction of dial service," added Harv Seybold, ESS manager. "ESS is the key to the future expansion of the telephone network. It's fast, reliable and adaptable."

An ESS system can handle a great many more calls than a comparable amount of other types of equipment, takes up less space, and because of its computer-like qualities can make possible customized services to telephone subscribers such as call waiting, call forwarding, threeway calling and speed calling.

"Call waiting lets you answer a second call when you are already on the phone; call forwarding enables you to transfer your calls to another phone number; threeway calling enables you to add a third person to your phone conversation; and speed calling enables you to dial frequently called local and long distance numbers using only a few digits (usually 3), Cremer reports. (Since July, these four custom calling services have been available in Illinois Bell communities served by an ESS office.)

"In our annual report," Cremer said, "we estimated our 1972 construction expenditures at $438 million, up from $387.7 million last year. But it now appears we may have to reduce that program because there is obviously a limit to what we can prudently spend for growth and improvement in view of our declining earnings. We did, however, conclude that despite the earnings picture one of the projects we could not foretell was this new electronic switching office for Frankfort."

The Bell System hopes to have all its offices in the country converted to electronic switching by the year 2000.

P.T. Construction of South Chicago Heights, is the general contractor for this project.

"Historically, August has been a good month to start or introduce something in Frankfort," Cremer told the participants in the groundbreaking ceremonies. "One hundred and seventeen years ago this month, the community of Frankfort was established; 93 years ago this month Frankfort was incorporated, and 10 years ago this month direct distance dialing was first introduced."

"And today, as you know we're taking a giant step in preparing for Frankfort's telephone future. We're breaking ground for a new building which will house an electronic switching system (ESS) — the newest and most modern type of telephone equipment yet developed. The new ESS office, which will be ready for operation by October, 1972, will replace our community dial office which was built in the summer of 1940 and was enlarged in November, 1956.

"As telephone demand in Frankfort has grown, new and more sophisticated services have been needed. In June, 1969, we introduced automatic number identification which meant that our operators would no longer come on the line when a Frankfort customer with one or two-party service dialed a long distance call direct.

"Our answer to expanding communication needs is electronic switching. ESS is the key to future expansion of the telephone network; it's fast, reliable and adaptable.

"Through the years, Illinois Bell has kept pace with the growth in Frankfort. And it is that growth, I believe, which is represented here this morning. ESS will help us keep pace with that growth. Frankfort and Illinois Bell have come a long way together and the future looks even better. Today we've taken another step in the right direction. Even in view of our declining earnings, one of the projects we could not foretell was this new electronic switching office for Frankfort."

Board tackles traffic problems

FRANKFORT — Parking, which has been and is a serious problem in cities, has now come to plague the smaller communities. At the meeting of the Frankfort Village Board Monday night considerable time was spent in discussing the subject.

Trustee Donald Stupp, police commissioner, got the ball rolling with pointing to the situation on White Street, in the vicinity of Kansas Street.

Customers of two business firms on the east side of White Park at right angle to the sidewalk. Backing out into the street, Stupp said, is a hazard and he suggested that motorists parking there be required to park parallel to the walk.

Since White Street is a state road he suggested that the village write the state highway district and ask leave to control the parking on White.

Mayor Glenn Warning suggested that perhaps the village should do away with angle parking in the entire business section.

"Parking diagonal to the curb can be hazardous too," the mayor said, "because one has to back out into traffic. The village has a parking lot now at Nebraska and Hickory Streets that should provide some off-street parking and free some spaces in front of business houses."

"It is my observation," he continued, "that employees of business firms are the ones that take up most of the space in front of stores. They park there when they come to work, and their cars stay there until they go home. I think we should consider putting a one or two hour limit on parking in the business section and enforce it."

There was talk about passage of an ordinance, that would be necessary if parking regulations are changed but Mayor Warning advised that before any action was taken that Burton Breidert, administrative assistant, and Police Chief Ted Massey talk with the business men and others and report on their reactions.

And while on the subject of regulations for motor vehicles the question was raised as to whether the board wanted to enact an ordinance governing the operation of mini-bikes.

Village Attorney August J. Santoro said if the board so instructed him he would draft a mini-bike ordinance but he thought it would be difficult to enforce. He pointed out that a state law prohibits riding mini bikes on public streets or highways and the police can arrest any such violators.

He added that if owners of vacant lots, which now draw mini-bike riders post the property against trespass, and signed a complaint against the mini riders using it, they could be taken to court.

"If you arrest a 14 year-old boy and take him to court because he was making too much noise with a mini-bike I seriously doubt one would get a conviction."

Several of the trustees and the mayor said they have had complaints by citizens about the noise produced when the riders "gun" their machines, and "gunning" the motor would seem to be a favorite pastime, according to complainants.

The McIntosh property along U.S. 30, that has been zoned for a shopping complex, is said to be the favorite spot for mini-bikers. After some more discussion it was agreed not to press for an anti-mini-bike measure at this time.

Persons annoyed by mini-bikers should call the police, the trustees said, and if the boys come back after being dispersed, call the police again.

The only ordinance enacted Monday night was the annual measure setting forth the tax levy for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1972, and ending April 30, 1973. The levy goes to the county clerk's office and is used in establishing tax rates.

The levy is for $202,445, to which is $30,000 more than the levy adopted last year. The appropriation ordinance for the present fiscal year provides for expenditures of $663,905. Thus the bulk of the funds, if realized, will come from sources other than taxes on real estate and personal property, against which the levy is made.

Members of the village zoning board of appeals who are unable to attend a called session of that body will be asked to give notice to that effect 24 hours before the meeting. The board decided on this action after Village Attorney Santoro reported at last week's zoning session only one member appeared and the meeting was called off for lack of a quorum. But the court reporter who takes the notes of such meetings had to be paid. There were attorney bills too.

Trustee Stupp presented the council with a mystery. Several residents on Hackberry, Cottonwood and Hawthorne Streets in Connecticut Hills had complained to him Monday about the color of their water supply, Stupp said.

The water had a yellow-orange tint, as it does when the lines are flushed. The mystery lies in the fact that there was no flushing of any water mains Monday, according to Trustee Wilbert Klier, head of the Water and Sewer Department.

At Stupp's request it was agreed that in the future residents will be notified the night before any flushing is to take place — Apparently police with bulldozers or the loudspeakers on their cars will pass the word.

Tax revenue funds speeds road repairs

NEW LENOX — Contracts for street repairs to be paid out of the village's share of the state motor fuel tax have been awarded by the New Lenox village board.

Lentz Oil Co., Lemont, was low bidder on jobs that call for preparation of bases, aggregate surface bituminous material for prime coating and seal coating, and seal coat aggregate.

The Lenz figure for this work was $6,143.56. Two other bids were received, one from Persico, for $8,886.38 and the other from Crown-Trygg for $9,534.36. The estimate of the village engineers, Robert E. Hamilton and Associated, was some $8,100.

The village also purchased 150 tons of bituminous patching. This contract went to Crown-Trygg for $1,755. Delta Construction, of Hillside, Ill., put in a bid of $1,740 but the difference in the cost of hauling, Delta being a further distance from New Lenox, made the Crown-Trygg proposal cheaper and on recommendation of John Djerf, the village engineer the contract was awarded to Crown-Trygg.

Approval of the plat for Unit 1 of Cherry Hill Manor was held up pending the working out of some details on drainage between Djerf, representing the village, and George Reiter, engineer for the subdivision, and with the subdivision presenting a letter of approval from the Will-South Cook Soil and Water Commission, as is now required by law.

The subject of drainage pertaining to the village of New Lenox also came up. Terry Small, a resident of Forest Street, west of Cedar Road, who has appealed for help several times, was again at a board meeting. He told the trustees that conditions were getting no better.

Recent rains have brought water rolling into his home again, he said.

"I should be charging the village, for treating sewage in our basement and family room," Small said. Small also reported that a ditch near his home is filled with water, he believed if it were cleared out some of the water might run off.

Trustee Francis Miller, head of sewer and water committee said a check will be made in an endeavor to ascertain if any houses have their downspouts connected to the sanitary sewer, which is against state and village law. The ground is still too wet to conduct smoke tests, and there is too much water flowing through the sewers.

ILEC cuts county sheriff funds

By Michael J. Flynn

In 1968, the Congress of the United States passed the Omnibus Crime in the Streets Act. This act allocated billions of dollars in federal funds to the 50 states to help them combat the growing crime rate in America.

The federal agency created to administer this program is the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA). The LEAA operates in each state in cooperation with a state organization created to administer the state programs. In Illinois, this organization is known as the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission (ILEC).

The ILEC is further refined for administrative purposes into regions and counties of Will, Kankakee, Grundy, Kendall and Kane. The chairman of Region IV of the ILEC is Edward F. Kovar. Kovar is also the chairman of the Kane County Board of Supervisors.

The Will County Law Enforcement Commission chairman is Dennis Jaskowiak and he is also the chief of the Crest Hill Police Department. Jaskowiak is formerly an employee of Region IV of the ILEC and the Will County Sheriff's Office.

Membership on the various county commissions ranges anywhere from 8 to 14 persons and there are frequently sub-committees whose members are not necessarily members of the commission as well. Commission membership is not consistently drawn from among a group of officials, including judges, sheriff's, police chiefs, probation officers, corporate executives to educators, county officials and municipal officials.

LEAA — ILEC funding may be granted to any governmental or private agency program that has shown that it can be effective in reducing the crime rate. County and municipal police departments, courts, jails, probation offices and youth organizations have been receiving the bulk of the funds allocated.

During the 1968-1972 period, ILEC Region IV records show that the sum of $3,857,118 was approved for programs in Kane County. Kane County has an official population of 251,005 which is contained in 15 townships and 24 municipalities. In addition, 1973 Region IV programs call for the expenditure of $1,419,000 in Kane County. Neither of the above figures includes a sum of $500,000 which was allocated to municipalities in Kane County by the ILEC — Region IV.

During the same period of time, 1968 to 1972, the total sum of $298,795 was approved by ILEC Region IV for programs in Will County. The 1973 ILEC Region IV programs call for the expenditure of $414,000 in Will County. The figures for Will county municipalities show that about $200,000 was approved by the ILEC

Region IV. It is known to the HERALD that nearly $150,000 of the approved funds for 1972 in Will County will not be funded due to a change in the priorities of the ILEC.

Will County has a population of 249,825 which is contained in 24 townships and 26 municipalities. It has the fastest growth rate of any of the five counties in region IV.

In total, funds equaling nearly $8 million have been approved for expenditure in the five counties making up Region IV of the ILEC. $5,301,715 of these funds will be expended in Kane County alone, nearly 70 percent of the funds allocated. Will County is shown to have received $706,795 during the same period. Less, of course, the $150,000 which will not be funded.

The source for the information presented here is a publication issued for limited circulation by Region IV of the ILEC on June 14, 1972. The publication is titled "Programs for Progress".

We do not suggest that Kane County does not have a serious need for all of the funds received by them. They are growing just as Will County is growing. Kovar is no doubt quite an authority on ILEC procedures and requirements for funding and he no doubt has a fine reputation and is most certainly respected in his community.

Kovar is the chairman of the Region IV of the ILEC and of the Kane County Law Enforcement Commission, in that order. He has a responsibility to see to it that funds under his jurisdiction are spent as equitably and evenly as possible taking into consideration population, territory and need.

If the Will County Law Enforcement Commission officials do not understand their responsibilities, they should call upon the paid staff of the region to show them how funds can be obtained. The ILEC programs provide funds to the regions so they can hire competent personnel to assist the volunteer commission members and other organizations to apply properly for funds and to make clear the services that the ILEC can fund if it is requested to do so.

The taxpayers of Will County have paid for their own court house, jail and new sheriff's facility from their own tax funds. Kane County has a new detention center, court house and sheriff's facility paid for almost completely by ILEC funds. It is time that Will County real estate taxes are given a rest and that a little more federal funds return to their source.

It was the intent and purpose of the legislators in creating the ILEC to give all communities the equal opportunity to up grade their police, court and detention facilities to a level that is more effective and humane than in the past. Such obvious inequities in the administration of this law demonstrates how the people of all other communities can be short changed.

District 122 tallies a $1,840,000 budget

NEW LENOX — The annual budget for the New Lenox public school system, District 122, for the 1972-73 fiscal year will run to approximately $1,840,000.

First hearing on the budget was conducted by the board of education at its regular meeting last week and is scheduled for adoption at the board session Sept. 5.

The budget, broken down into major categories, is approximately as follows:

Educational Fund	$1,488,000
Building Fund	81,000
Bonds & Interest	134,000
Transportation	121,000
Municipal Retirement	16,000

This adds up to about $1,840,000 in round figures but is expected to go much higher if construction costs are added to it. The board is planning to build a new school to provide room for the steadily growing enrollment, according to Superintendent Arnold J. Tyler.

Ross DeYoung, of the architectural firm of Healy Moore and Associates, showed the board a preliminary construction plan for a proposed 24-classroom school. He is return to the board tonight (Wednesday) will more details.

The board is considering mixing pre-fabricated construction with the on site-type. DeYoung, who has been conferring with the pre-fabricators was to talk with them again and hoped to be able to give the board all the information it needs at tonight's meeting, that will permit it to make a decision.

Superintendent Tyler pointed out that

Special math class

NEW LENOX — This fall the Oakview Junior High School of New Lenox Grade School District 122, will provide a course in beginning algebra for students with high aptitude and interest in the field of mathematics, it was announced by Superintendent Arnold J. Tyler.

the gymnasium and all purpose room would have to be built on the site, because of the high ceilings and other requirements that the pre-fabricated sections lack. The learning center, too, will have to be built from scratch, he said.

The architect and the pre-fabricators are conferring on how to fit the finished and the custom built sections together. Using the pre-fabricated sections, Tyler said, is expected to cut the cost of building.

The school is scheduled to be built on the property owned by the district on Illinois Highway.

Superintendent Tyler and board members point out that the school enrollment now has reached a point where another school is necessary to accommodate it. Tyler said 227 pupils already are enrolled in kindergarten and the total enrollment expected when school opens Aug. 30, is put at 2,175. It is expected that this number will be increased by year's end through new people moving into the district, the superintendent said.

Some of the money for the proposed new school will come from the district's share of the Caroline Bentley Estate. There is another story in this issue dealing with the recent auction of land, the proceeds of which are to go to the school. However, not included in that story is the fact that the board recently sold a corner piece of the homestead place to the purchaser of that property, R. E. Walsh, an executive with an insurance firm.

There was a tract of three and a fraction acres left after the home and seven acres were sold, and to protect his interests and homesite Walsh bought this piece, paying the school $35,000. The homestead brought $57,000 when it was sold by the executors, C. W. Batson and Ralph Agate. The school was well satisfied with both prices, a spokesman said.

Connected or not, new water rate hits everyone

NEW LENOX — An ordinance establishing rates for the new water system at New Lenox was adopted by the village board at its regular meeting last week. The board also agreed that beginning Oct. 1 everyone having a service lead will be billed the minimum rate, whether they are actually hooked-up with the system.

There are a few people who are connected to the new system and they will be billed according to the amount of water used as recorded on their meters.

The minimum rate is $23 per quarter, less a discount of $2.30 if the bill is paid within 10 days. Put on a monthly basis the minimum will be $6.90 if the consumer pays his bill within the discount period.

The rates established are:

	Per Quarter	Per 1,000 Gal.
First	18,000 gal.	$1.28
Next	30,000 gal.	.89
Next	30,000 gal.	.78
Next	30,000 gal.	.56

For water service in apartment buildings with three or more units and served by one meter the above rates will apply, plus a charge of $2 per month per apartment.

The new customers also are required to put up a $50 fee, when they apply for service for each housing unit that is separately metered and billed.

In the event the customer requests that the service be discontinued or the village notifies the customer, in writing, that service will be discontinued, and his account is paid in full then his fee will be returned to him. If he is delinquent in paying his water bills the amount due will be deducted from the fee and the remainder paid to the customer.

While on the subject of water the board took up the subject of installing an iron filter. The water is rather rusty at times, it reported.

The board received two bids early in August that were over the engineer's estimate. There was talk of authorizing Engineer John Djerf to negotiate with the lowest bidder. Djerf, who is with Robert E. Hamilton and Associates, village engineers, said the bidder was now talking around $100,000 if he could erect a metal building instead of a block one to house the filter. His bid with a block building was some $115,000, some $20,000 with a brick-block building.

About this time Blaine Saxton, of Mokena, who has the contract for installing the water system said he would put up the filter plant for $100,000, with a steel building to house it, if he could also have the contract for putting in about 1,800 feet of pipe that will hook into the filter.

The board told Saxton his proposal could not be considered and pointed out that he had not chosen to bid on the job. It all wound up with the village rejecting the bids and instructed Djerf to re-advertise.

Frankfort board drops cat control ordinance

FRANKFORT — The Village, of Frankfort, lacking home rule, will not have an ordinance licensing cats and requiring owners to keep their pets to the home corral.

A few meetings back Trustee Howard Osmus brought up the subject. He had read, he said, that the Park Forest council had brought up an ordinance putting cats on the same footing as dogs, which is to say cats would be licensed and not permitted to run at large.

Trustee Osmus said he had received a number of complaints from residents about prowling cats and suggested that perhaps Frankfort could follow the example of Park Forest and draft a similar ordinance.

At Monday night's meeting Village Attorney August J. Santoro was asked if he had drawn up the ordinance yet. He replied that he had not, and that his research led him to reiterate the opinion he had given when the measure was first proposed.

To wit: There was no state law curbing the liberty of cats in Illinois. Under the new constitution cities and villages of certain sized populations automatically possessed home rule under which they could pass practically any kind of ordinance but Frankfort was not in that category.

Therefore, as far as he has been able to ascertain any cat curbing measure passed by the Frankfort village board would not be worth—to use an old expression coined when the price of paper was very low indeed—would not be worth the paper it was written on.

Trustee Osmus agreed to tabling the cat ordinance question—for the present at least. He added that when the ordinance at Park Forest came up for final passage it too was tabled—there were too many too vocal cat admirers present.

Prompt attention

NEW LENOX — Early identification of learning disabilities in order to begin more effective instructional programs for these children is the goal of New Lenox schools, said a spokesman for District 122.

To further implement this program, three additional personnel have been added to the professional staff, including an additional teacher in learning disabilities, a guidance counselor, and an internal psychologist.

The kindergarten teachers, the guidance department, special education director, school psychologist, and the learning disabilities teachers will work as a team in identification, screening, testing, evaluating and diagnosing problems of the kindergarten youngsters, it was explained.

Special activities and programs prescribed for youngsters with learning problems will be carried out as a team approach by the kindergarten teacher, learning disabilities teacher, motor facilitation teacher, and the counselor.

With early identification of problems, followed by special, more individualized programming, each child will have a greater opportunity to reach a level of function within the realm of his aptitude, a school spokesman explained.

Plain Talk about True Discount Pricing...

Why should you let a food store tell you when to shop? Why indeed? If you could actually save money to any worthwhile extent it might be worth it to plan your shopping trip according to some supermarket's "effective dates." The big trouble is these dates apply to a few of the items an average shopper buys and their so called "specials" don't really add up to the kind of savings Eagle offers every day with True Discount Prices! In plain talk you may actually be inconveniencing yourself to shop during the stores "effective dates" and end up saving only a few cents for your trouble. When you shop Eagle you take home savings on your weekly food bill and you get these savings no matter when you shop. Eagle True Discount Prices mean that savings are an everyday thing at Eagle and that makes us more "special" than the stores that offer specials.

There's more to Eagle's True

Discount Program... merchandising policies that are designed to make shopping easier, more convenient and more economical.

Single Item Pricing

Single Item Pricing lets you tell at a glance how low our discount prices are. No need to figure the cost of one item or buy a quantity to realize savings. Every item is individually priced at Eagle with our Low Discount Prices.

Key Buys

Key Buys are made possible by manufacturers temporary promotional allowances. These are extra savings even beyond our already low discount prices. At Eagle we mark our Key Buys plainly in our ads and in our aisles so you can take full advantage of the savings.

No Limits

There's No Limits imposed on your choice either. Eagle offers discount prices every day of the week with No Limits or restrictions on the quantity you decide to buy so as a result No Limits to your savings at Eagle.

Guaranteed Value Per Measure

Guaranteed Value Per Measure is another way Eagle's True Discount Program makes your shopping easier and more economical. This policy guarantees the large size of a product to be your best buy. When the manufacturer offers a temporary promotional allowance on the small size of a product, this makes it a better buy. When this occurs Eagle labels the large size S.O.S. (Save on Smallsizes). All this makes Eagle pretty special. Anyway our customers think so, and we hope you will too. Plain talk about reducing your food costs with True Discounting at Eagle!

Carriers enjoy summer's pre-back-to-school fling

It's "back to school" time and that time worn declaration which puts cold chills into the bones of many a young man means the end of a three-month summer vacation which has been climaxed by perhaps an all-star baseball game, a family vacation, a special weekend trip or, as these teenagers are enjoying, a forest preserve picnic.

The event was the annual Crescent Newspapers' carrier boy and girl all-day outing with more than 100 of the young business people taking part in the two separate events held in southwest Cook County and northern Will County.

The youngsters participated in a variety of games under the direction of Ray Rajhert, circulation manager for the Will-Cook Division of Crescent Newspapers, Inc. He was assisted by Mrs. Beverly Christian and Mrs. Darlene McMillin of Tinley Park, Mrs. Ann LaBlanc of Oak Forest, Mrs. Flora Haynes of Country Club Hills, Mrs. Betty Wood of Orland Park, and Mrs. Lillian Sparkman of Frankfort.

Relay races, softball, volleyball, hot dogs and all the trimmings occupied the young people throughout most of the day. Yankee Woods at Oak Forest and VanHorn Woods at Mokena were the two sites for the annual events.

The circulation department is planning a trip to Santa's Village in September for the carriers. Contests are held monthly for the young business people during which they have an opportunity to earn additional bonuses and prizes.

The circulation department maintains a waiting list of boys and girls who are interested in becoming carriers of Crescent Newspapers. Manager Rajhert says there are a few routes now available for prospective carriers in Tinley Park South, Mokena, New Lenox and Oak Forest East.
